

Dear Jeffrey,

I just wanted to take a moment to thank you for all your support on our project, the video "What You Eat...It's Up To You." We knew the scope of this project was complicated and it was going to be an uphill battle to complete the project in a timely manner and to stay within our budget. From our initial meeting to the day the project was completed, I was extremely impressed with your project management, your technical expertise, and your high creative standards that made our project professional. I know we were difficult clients and your flexibility in scheduling and your eye for detail made the experience extremely rewarding for all of us involved in the project. Although I had the concepts in my head, it was your magic that transformed that vision into an award winning video that continues to win accolades throughout my organization and the rest of the country. We were also fortunate to being involved with a company that had enough creative resources to get the optimal results that were required. I would recommend Action Media Productions to any organization without hesitation and feel we got the best possible value and results, from our association with your company. I look forward to future projects with you, and I can do that with the knowledge that the process will be managed professionally and the results will be nothing less than top shelf. Thank you again for all you have done for our organization, and for the children our video will educate with sound nutritional advice.
